The Steel Wheels

Sunday, November 1st

The Steel Wheels blew us away last time they played here at the Rose with their heady brew of original soulful mountain music. Based in the Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia, this dynamic four-piece string band marries old-time musical traditions with their own innovative sound and lifestyle, generating a truly magnetic revival.

Jeffrey Foucault with special guest Jeffrey Martin

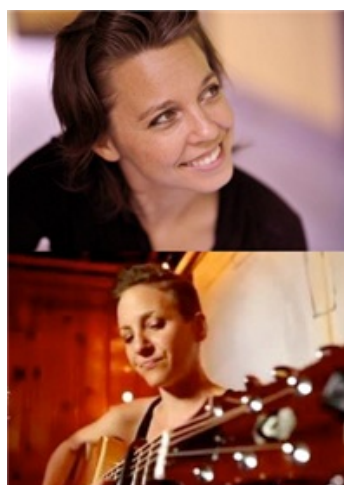

Thursday, November 5th

A longtime disciple of the rich and strange music that sings behind the American veil, Jeffrey Foucault has spent the last decade mining the darker seams of country and blues, producing a string of spare and elemental albums of rare power while garnering accolades across the United States and overseas for a tersely elegant brand of songwriting set apart by its haunting imagery and weather-beaten cool.

Portland's own Jeffrey Martin opens the show. According to the Portland Mercury, "Martin's songs are beautiful, sparse, and utterly devastating."

Erin McKeown * Natalia Zukerman

Friday, November 6th

Two great singer-songwriters join forces for an epic double-bill.

The Boston Globe says Erin McKeown's playing "is so muscular, her arrangements so well conceived that she succeeds brilliantly. As with all truly great guitarists, the wonder is less in her chops than her choices."

Presents: The Harlem Quartet

4/22/16

John Gorka

Natalia Zukerman diverged from her classical music family, finding her sound in other strings - those on slide guitar, lap steel, dobro. She found kinship in the earthiness and honesty of folk, bluegrass, jazz and blues music.

Presented by Alberta Rose Theatre in partnership with Siren Nation Festival.

The Blues Cabaret CD Release Party

Saturday, November 7th

Advance VIP tickets available, including admission, CD, early seating, and a pre-show champagne reception

The Blues Cabaret is a dynamic new song cycle about a wistful musician who finally walks the road not taken - years too late. It's a heart-rending, knee-slapping ride through love lost, gained and squandered, told through sixteen-plus songs, four soulful singers and one swinging band.

The two-set show is the brainchild of Dave Fleschner, writer, composer, arranger, singer and serious pianist. Portlander Dave has toured internationally with Curtis Salgado, played with B.B. King and written for plenty others. "But this," he says, "this is what I've been wanting to do since I was sixteen years old: tell a story from my own heart with my very own tunes."

IMPulse Circus Collective presents: We All Fall Down

Sunday, November 8th

Within an old trunk in the attic lies a treasure trove of games, memories and circus acts. As the trunk's contents are revealed, five friends are inspired to relive their formative years, and rekindle their love of play. Featuring stunning feats of strength and precision, the show takes audiences on a touching journey which will charm, surprise, and amaze. With a penchant for mirth and mischief, but always a touch of class, IMPulse Circus Collective presents their new show, "We All Fall Down".

Tickets

New Years Eve with The Jerry Douglas Band! Thursday, December 31st

Two shows for New Year's Eve! Ring in the New Year at the Rose!

Dobro master and 13-time Grammy winner Jerry Douglas is to the resonator guitar what Jimi Hendrix was to the electric guitar: elevating, transforming, and reinventing the instrument in countless ways. He is a freewheeling, forward-thinking recording artist whose output incorporates elements of bluegrass, country, rock, jazz, blues and Celtic music.

Here's a little Medley by Jerry Douglas - enjoy!

Tickets for the Early Show - 7pm

Tickets for the Late Show - 10pm

We serve regional beer, wine, and non-alcoholic beverages as well as hand made Australian style pies by Pacific Pie Company and sweets from Alma Chocolates at all of our shows.

We look forward to seeing you soon!
